

TTN “L.I.F.T.” For Autism

LET’S INVESTIGATE FLYING TOGETHER

Trenton Mercer Airport invites families with children diagnosed with autism to participate in a “practice run” to prepare for travel. Here is an opportunity to guide your child through the check-in, security, waiting and baggage claim part of travel in a calm and reassuring atmosphere. All you need to do is register using the email below, complete required TSA documents (you will be issued a prototype boarding pass), bring a small suitcase to check and have your child bring a packed backpack. In order to offer this program to as many children diagnosed with autism as possible, we ask that each is accompanied by parents or guardians only.

Further information will be provided upon registration.
