

FSO Presents:

UNDERSTANDING AND SUPPORTING SIBLINGS OF CHILDREN WITH BEHAVIORAL AND EMOTIONAL CHALLENGES, PRESENTED BY KARA SELLIX, MSW, LSW

About Kara: Kara works at The Arc Kohler School as well as Developmental Disabilities Health Partners

Neurotypical siblings of children and adults with behavioral and emotional challenges have unique needs and oftentimes parents and providers don't know what those needs are or how to address them.

This presentation will provide:

- An overview of how siblings often experience and perceive disability and mental health.
- Assistance to parents and providers in recognizing the difficulties that can be present for siblings in their various roles.
- Ways to offer support to siblings.
- How to present effective strategies for initiating difficult conversations about different conditions with children and teens.
