

COLLEGE PREP TRANSITION CONFERENCE @ ROWAN UNIVERSITY

When will the Conference take place?

- Saturday March 25, 2017

What is the College Prep Transition Conference?

A day-long event with various workshops offered to high school students with disabilities and their parents. Our goal is to provide students knowledge and understanding of the transition process and differences between high school and college.

What will the Conference cover?

- How is College Different from High School?
- How to Prepare for the Transition to College
- Career Readiness and Planning
- Attending a Two Year vs. Four Year College
- Living on Campus vs. Commuting
- First Hand Experiences from Current Students and Alumni
- Parent to Parent Workshop

For more information, please contact:

John Woodruff

Director, Academic Success Center & Disability Resources

*(856) 256-4234 | woodruff@rowan.edu
201 Mullica Hill Rd | Glassboro, NJ 08028*

