

Supporting Students with Intellectual and Developmental Differences Build Social Skills

This webinar will discuss a variety of avenues that can be explored to assist in building and maintaining social skills for children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The presenter will also discuss how to find these opportunities in the community.

About the Presenter: Annette L Becklund is the director and owner of Annette L Becklund, MSW, LCSW & Associates LLC. Annette's practice specializes in Autism, Asperger's, Developmental Differences and all unique ways of being. Individual therapy, group social skills therapy for adults and kids, family therapy, trauma therapy, special interest clubs, Adult Autism and Asperger's Evaluations, Professional Development programs, Consultations, and more are available.

Webinar

Wed.,
July 20

12 pm

REGISTER NOW!

[https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/
register/3262423998188471554](https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/3262423998188471554)