Episode 1: How Does Criminal Justice Reform Impact Your Client with Developmental Disabilities When Arrested in NJ.

When you work with people with developmental disabilities, situations may arise which result in criminal charges. What happens next? Bail reform, also known as criminal justice reform has resulted in some crucial changes that service providers should know about. Attorney Mary McMann, an experienced criminal defense attorney, will provide an overview of the criminal justice system and how it affects clients with developmental disabilities when criminal charges are filed.
