

The Arc of Morris: Camp Paradise Farm

Paradise Farm Summer Camp offers engaging, hands-on summer experiences for youth and adults with developmental disabilities. Campers enjoy themed weeks filled with farm activities, science, cooking, arts and crafts, outdoor fun, field trips, and Friday celebrations- all in a supportive, small-group environment designed to build skills, confidence, and connection.

Paradise Farm is located in Randolph, Morris County NJ and is surrounded by a few acres of fields and wooded lands, featuring an art studio, farm house, sensory room, farm animals, a green house and gardens. This property is not ADA accessible for individuals in wheel chairs.

Each camp session runs Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., with an aftercare program available until 6:00 p.m for an additional fee. Transportation to and from camp is not provided. Paradise Farm is an approved provider for the New Jersey Children's System of Care (CSOC) and the New Jersey Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD). Camp scholarships may be available- please inquire for details!
