

FIVE FAST FACTS FOR FRIDAY

Get Ready for the 2018 Midterm Election

- Midterm election is a general election that happens halfway through a President's time in office. During a midterm election, one-third of members in the U.S. Senate and all members of the U.S. House of Representatives are up for election.
- Voters in NJ's midterm election will elect 1 member to the U.S. Senate and 12 members to the U.S. House of Representatives (1 per congressional district).
- During the last midterm election in 2014, only 36% of eligible New Jersey voters turned up at the polls.
- Register by May 15th to vote in the primary election and October 16th to vote in the general midterm election.
- Vote in the primary election on June 5th to determine which candidates will be on the ballot in November.
- Vote in the general election on November 6th.
